GOWNS of Brilliant Charm for Dinner and Evening Wear

A vivid lovely collection—for here are models with the subtle charm so unmistakably French, and equally original, equally inspired, gowns from famous American designers.

Classically simple in line or intricate and elaborate, they are developed from chiffon velvet, from shimmering metal cloth or rich metal brocade, from dainty crepe Roma, and from silk laces, fine as a spider web. For instance, there is a soft little crepe of robin's egg blue with a tracery of crystal beads. Or, ornate and formal, a draped gown of black and gold brocade.

Webs of color, fabrics luxuriously light and soft and originality of design combine to make these gowns conspicuously lovely in a season of loveliness.

Many in the Group Have Been Reduced.

For the First Chill of Early Morning—

Zenana House Coats

Imported from Paris. $35.00

Warmly practical, of course, and yet they have about them that magic French touch of charm. Made ankle-length, they are full and wrappy, so that one can snuggle into them on the bleakest Winter morning and be cozily comfortable.

One model is plain, the other is ornamented with hand-painted motifs outlined in silk. Lined throughout with China silk. In all lovely pastel or darker shades, and in black.

Assembled here is every kind of house coat and negligee, from the simplest to the most elaborate.

Developed in various fabrics and colorings, and offering a multitude of gift suggestions.
